LOCAL BUSINESS WOMAN SELECTED AS AUDITOR

Mrs. Maude Smith was Chosen by Business Women as Member of Directors.

The Hutchinson Business Women's council is feeling highly elated over the fact that their president, Mrs. M. E. Smith, who is also president of the state organization, has been chosen as a member of the executive board of the national council which closes its sessions today at St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Smith is assistant cashier of the American National bank.

The honor conferred upon this Hutchinson business woman is felt by all members of the local council, which was only recently federated into the National Federation of Business and Professional Women. The Hutchinson organization has the name of being the largest organization in the state and the most alive.

Miss Pearl Leighty is also attending the convention which has been holding its sessions this week in St. Louis. Another Kansas young woman, Miss Fern Baursfeld of Coffeyville was chosen vice president and is a member of the board of directors representing Kansas.

FROM OVER KANSAS

Brief Tales of Happenings in Other Portions of the State.

Not at Once.

Topeka, July 18.—Although the ouster suits filed against seven big cement companies in the state by Attorney General Richard J. Hopkins, under the anti-trust law, ask for the appointment of a receiver, Mr. Hopkins announced that it is not his intention to demand receivership at once. The cement companies have been given until August 13 to file answers to the charges of monopolizing the industry and illegally fixing prices. It is expected that the supreme court will appoint a commission to hear the evidence, which will report to the supreme court.

Harvey County Legion.

Newton, July 18.—The Harvey county chapter of the Legion of Honor has received its charter and permanent organization will be effected at a meeting to be called soon. Meanwhile, ex-service men are filling out service record blanks which are to be forwarded to the state headquarters of the Legion for registration.

Handles Much Money.

Topeka, July 18.—As a financial institution the state treasury has grown to include more than $15,000,000 in the various funds of which it is custodian. A report of an audit just completed by State Accountant J. E. Caton and delivered to Governor Allen, states that the treasurer collects and accounts to the state annually for more than $260,000 in interest. The largest single item is that of the state permanent school fund of $9,979,490.36, with an interest account of $4,425,092.37.

Killed in Siberia.

Halstead, July 18—An official notice from the war department received by Miss Katherine Roberts, states that her brother, William Roberts, 23, was killed in action in Siberia, on June 25. Shortly before entering the service young Roberts was married at Humboldt, at which place he was drafted. Surviving him, besides his wife, is a baby, born since he was sent to Siberia and which he had never seen; his sister and two brothers.

About Phone Rates.

Arkansas City, July 18.—The city commission has instructed City Attorney Dale to appear at the state public utilities commission's telephone hearing at Topeka on July 24, and to enter protest against making permanent the phone rates installed here under government control.

To Speak at Salina.

Salina, July 18.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood has notified W. W. Watson of this city, president of the Chamber of Commerce, that he accepts the invitation to deliver an address here on Tuesday, September 2, as a feature of the Victory Celebration. On this day medals are to be presented to Saline county boys who served their country during the great war.

A SLASHING SQUAD.

Surveying Crew on the Drainage Canal Armed with Bolos.

A squad of slashers, armed with bolos, are accompanying the engineers who are doing the field work for the city engineer along the drainage canal.

"They are not killing snakes," explained City Engineer Ben Leo. "They are cutting willows. In order to get the sights in doing the surveying, two or three men have to cut the willows. It's a regular thicket there."

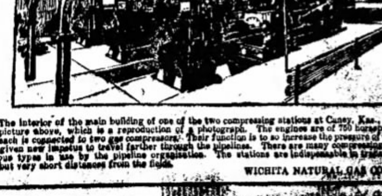
Big Engines Necessary to Transmit Natural Gas



The interior of the main building of one of the two compressing stations at Caney, Kas., is shown in the picture above, which is a reproduction of a photograph. The engines are of 750 horsepower, each, and each is connected to two gas compressors. Their function is to so increase the pressure of the gas that it is given new impetus to travel farther through the pipelines. There are many compressing stations of various types in use by the pipeline organization. The stations are indispensable in transmitting gas any but very short distances from the fields.
