

THE COFFEYVILLE ROBBERS.

Trouble Narrowly Averted - Emmet Dalton Still Living - Broadwell's Brother on Hand.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Oct. 7.—Trouble was narrowly averted this morning when Sheriff Callahan wanted to move Emmet Dalton to Independence, and, had he carried out the plan, there would have been war, for, although the citizens are willing that he should receive all the care necessary, they will not submit to his being moved. It is, however, only a question of time with him. His mother, brothers Ben and Simon, and sister, Mrs. Whipple, arrived this morning from Kingfisher. Ben Dalton is the eldest son and is in his 41st year. The mother is 57 years old.

George Broadwell and E. B. Wilcox, brother and brother-in-law of Dick Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," arrived from Hutchinson to-day. The former is traveling salesman for the Boston Tea Co. of Chicago, the latter a grocer at Hutchinson. Wilcox said: "We were as greatly shocked by this occurrence as you and entirely ignorant of Dick's being with this gang. Had not heard of him since May. He was never wild or a drinker or gambler, and although a cowboy we always thought him to be straight and law abiding. His mother and sister Jennie, George and my wife compose the family and all live in Hutchinson."

Broadwell's body was taken up and placed in a coffin his family purchased for him and then placed back in the grave.

The funeral of Marshal Connelly took place this morning and was largely attended. The body was taken to Independence, the Missouri Pacific railway furnishing free of charges two coaches for friends.

A meeting is to be held to-night at the wigwam to appoint trustees for a contribution fund for the relief of the widows and children of the murdered citizens, as it is beyond doubt the express and railroad companies will donate liberal sums.

Cashier Ayers is still improving.

Olle Ogee Not With the Daltons.