

The Budget Process of the City of Hutchinson

The annual operating budget preparation and adoption entails a comprehensive process that begins in November and ends in late August. The City's budget includes 71 individual budgets contained within 22 separate funds. Budget activities follow a general timeline as listed below:

