

Welcome to the fifth annual outdoor SculptureWalk Downtown Hutchinson on Main Street.

The City of Hutchinson, Downtown Hutchinson and the Hutchinson/Reno Arts & Humanities Council have partnered to bring this exciting sculpture exhibit to downtown Hutchinson. These original world-class sculptures by regional artists will be on display for one year. The sculptures are owned by the artist and loaned to the exhibit.

Enjoy your tour!

About SculptureWalk:

Downtown Hutchinson, the Hutchinson/Reno Arts & Humanities Council (HRAH) and the City of Hutchinson work together in a partnership to create this opportunity for regional artists to display their work by creating the SculptureWalk Downtown Hutchinson. Selected sculptures are on display for one year through the generous help of site sponsors and donors.

Mongo

Rollin Karg
Metal & Glass, Price: $16,000

From top to bottom your eyes dance along this sculpture where the texture of metal meets colorful molten glass.

Site Sponsor:
Peoples Bank & Trust - West Side 3rd & Main

The Inverted S Curve

Mary C. Angers
Aluminum, Price: $8,000

The curve expands your mind to a path not yet traveled.

Site Sponsor:
Bluebird Books - SE Corner Sherman & Main

Stay

Patricia Vader
Aluminum, Price: $15,000

This bright colorful dog reminds this artist of her beloved German Shepherd as he waits faithfully for the next adventure.

Site Sponsor:
Fee Insurance Group - West Side Ave. A & Main

Threshold

Gregory Johnson
Stainless Steel, Price: $11,500

Gregory Johnson uses the circle as the starting point of all his modern pieces. The circle without a beginning, middle or end is used whole and complete and alludes to the circle of life.
